

Donation is at the bottom of the priority, so a summary of information in the homepage is preferred. (Change is made for the activity)

Focus areas need to be separated for each region instead of just a summary of all regions. (Change is made for the activity)

Otherwise, the way the information is delivered for the focus areas is good.

The navigation bar is good and easy to understand.

Change the colour of the background so it doesn't overwhelm users.
(Change is made for the activity)

The new website on its own is good. Considering the efficiency of space compared to the original one. Smaller logo used as a home button and simply utilizing space instead of leaving it blank made this possible.